

Dear Family, (This poem was written in collaboration by Mary Booth, Clifton Booth, Charles Booth and Catherine Booth Augello and it is dedicated to an avid lover of poetry, Mr. Leonard George Daniels III.)

Christmas Eve will be here soon,
With lovely carols sung in tune.
Come with hearts that are over run
With love for the Blessed One.

Let us dine around one o'clock - - -
Your reindeer can park with the other stock,
We'll come from Florida, Texas and Poulso (Poles - bow)
"King George" will greet all with a "HO! HO! HO!"

Which White Elephant will be a prize this year?
The suspense is overwhelming but the answer is near.
From your "Secret Santa" you will know soon,
With a gift which is "over the moon"!?!?

We welcome Jessica Burris to the fun this year,
She's sure to add to the Christmas cheer.
"Twas the Night Before Christmas" will be read by Chuck,
If you end up last, well, best of luck!!

Following are some opportunities to be "Santa's Helpers": *

- Carving the turkey
- Mashing the potatoes
- Making the gravy
- Saying the Blessing
- Leading in the "Doxology"
- Reading Luke 2:1-20

Make Christmas Cookies. - - - Catherine Booth Augello
Pour water and ice at meal time.
Put chairs around the tables.

*Better speak up quickly as the opportunities are going fast!!
Notice that the Make Christmas Cookies opportunity is already spoken for!!

Mike and Alicia, you will be missed but we are pleased you are able to travel to India.

"Merry Christmas" one and all.
Mary and Cliff - - - "Santa's Helpers"
